The Spiral of Love

It has been observed that our lives, in the context of Jewish time, are like spirals. We continue to cycle back through the same events, year after year, all the while moving upward: Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, festivals, Shabbat, punctuated by marriages and births and deaths and benei mitzvah, joy and grieving and celebration and solemnity. And each time we come back to these holy moments, we have grown older and wiser; we have more tools in our spiritual sheds and better lenses through which to see the world. The siddur / prayer book used on High Holidays and festivals is called a mahzor, literally, a "cycle."

My guess is that you probably have not yet thought about entering the new Jewish year of 5779. After all, we still have a few more months of 5778 to enjoy. But I have been thinking about it for quite some time, and I can tell you that the theme for this High Holiday cycle will be Ahavah / Love: love of self, love of family, love of community, love of the world. Maybe you have noticed that the world could use a bit more love, and that starts with loving ourselves, and building on that love as we spiral upwards and outwards.

"Ahavah rabbah ahavtanu," we chant every morning: "With great love, You have loved us." However we understand God, however we access the Divine idea, the essential statement of God's relationship with us is that God demonstrated love for humans, all humans, by giving us Torah. In acting on Torah, in studying and interpreting and fulfilling and questioning and wrestling with Torah, we are increasing the love in this world.

It's not too early to prepare for 5779, and I'm not talking about cooking brisket for your Rosh Hashanah lunch. Take a moment to think about the state of the world today, and how you might be able to increase the love, even a tiny amount. What are the things you can do right now to make yourself, your community, your world more loved? We'll discuss this further as the next turn in the spiral comes around. Enjoy the summer!

A Message from Our President

Debby Firestone

President

With the major festivals behind us one might think that the summer is a quiet time at the Shul with little happening beyond our Conservative Community Tish'ah BeAv service. In reality, there's hard work underway, both in regard to planning for Fall religious services, and in thinking about the future direction of Beth Shalom. Our Religious Services Committee, along with our professionals, are now engaged in planning for the High Holidays as they do every year at this time.

But beyond this important but recurring task, we are also involved in rigorous thinking about our future. This is an exciting time in the history of Congregation Beth Shalom as we move forward beyond our 100th year. In the months ahead we will be taking an ambitious and realistic look at where we have been and where we are going as a congregation with guidance from United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. With the help of a transformation specialist who has worked with many synagogues; we will create a new strategic plan over the next year.

The last strategic plan was developed in 2008 with much devotion and a very diligent effort from many of our Shul members. As we looked at the plan, we realized that many of the suggested goals have been accomplished but in other areas we are still progressing or have not been able to attempt the recommendations. In the leadership section, we have successfully modified the Board of Trustees to be more effective. Another example of our progress in the leadership area is Rabbi Adelson's work to develop young leadership with help from USCJ programming. Our fiduciary duty to the congregation has been to reduce the deficit and we are continuing to do so. In the area of fundraising, we have begun to develop long-term goals established through our Centennial efforts, which will be an on-going challenge for us because of necessary building repairs. The Derekh Program has had a successful year with the engagement of many young and older families in our community, collaborating with other institutions and providing needed adult programming. Over the last two years, our USY has become an award winning organization with increased engagement with teens in our area. JJEP and our Preschool have both had successful school years with increased enrollment.

Beth Shalom is in a very different place now than ten years ago. We now have strong congregational support and continuously increasing membership. We are fortunate to have an excellent staff and are continuing to work toward meeting the needs of our congregants on many levels. So it is only fitting that now is the time to ponder our future and begin to implement a new plan to enhance our Shul community. We continue to need you—to volunteer, to work together, to share your strengths and common goals to help us advance Beth Shalom's mission.

Enjoy the summer!

Sustainability!

Sustainability is easy to define: ensure that our revenues can balance our expenses, every year, year after year.

For a nonprofit, a balanced budget is the goal and the requirement. For four straight years, the budgeted deficit has shrunk and, in reality, we were able to generate net revenue last year. That was not surprising, since we celebrated our centennial year with a major fundraising effort. We know that, although we have nearly balanced our budget for this fiscal year, we are not close to being sustainable. Without an exceptional fundraising effort, our expenses exceed our revenues. We don't celebrate our Centennial every year, but we must continue to raise funds.

Beth Shalom has been reinvigorated to be the thriving center of Judaism for Pittsburgh. 35 new members last year and 29 the year before. Numerous new courses, concerts, and celebrations. An attitude of inclusion and exploration. Upgraded facilities and efficient administrative policies. How can we sustain the momentum?

There are only two choices for financial sustainability: reduce expenses or increase revenues. We can reduce expenses, but by doing so we change who we are and what our vision is. The other choice is to increase revenues. We have opportunities to market our building, increase donations, and increase dues. We can sustain who we are if you are willing to support Beth Shalom. You have some decisions to make and you need a planning process to help you make those decisions.

Planning for sustainability requires getting the information about you and our opportunities. The Strategic Planning process which we've started, with the help of the USCJ, should give you the tools to determine just what you want Beth Shalom to be and what the opportunities are to get us there.

Sustainability comes down to the individual. Be part of the process, define what you want Beth Shalom to be, and then step up with your knowledge, time, and money.

Coffee with the Cantor: Jewish Influence in the Secular World

Come and participate in "Coffee with the Cantor" - a stimulating discussion group led by our Executive Director, Hazzan (Cantor) Rob Menes.

Last year we focused our discussion on Jewish rituals and how they are viewed by the Jewish and non-Jewish world. This year, we turn the tables and ask the question, how has Judaism affected the non-Jewish world? Although some of the discussion will look at historical influences, much of the time will be spent on current interactions. Coffee will be provided by the Cantor!

Wednesdays at 11:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. in the Lehman Center.

Walking the Derekh

Rabbi Jeremy Markiz

Director of Derekh

& Youth Tefillah

jmarkiz@bethshalompgh.org

It has been an incredible year for Derekh and Beth Shalom. We sought to bring the community more programming, to try new things, and to build relationships. We have met these goals handily. We've had thirty-one programs with nearly one hundred events, from weekly, to monthly, to large scale events. We've had over 1,600 in-person encounters and worked with more than eight collaborating organizations. We have good reason to be proud.

This upcoming year will look different as we evaluate all that we have learned to be better at providing the greatest amount of value. One thing we have learned is that when you, the Beth Shalom member, are involved, we are more successful!

Personally, this year has been a real gift. You have taught me of the depth of Torah in this congregation. I have heard your stories, about your passions, and your fears, and they have made me a better person and a better rabbi. Thank you for being in relationship with me.

In addition, I'm proud to share that I've been accepted into the Rabbis Without Borders Fellowship with Clal. This initiative "helps rabbis innovate using Jewish wisdom as a source for wellbeing...helps rabbis better communicate in both familiar and new venues, and makes Jewish wisdom an accessible resource for the American public to help all people flourish in their lives." (<http://rabbiswithoutborders.org>)

I'm thrilled to be a part of this incredible project and to bring all that I learn to Beth Shalom!

What an exciting year we have ahead together! I am eager to hear your ideas and to be in partnership with you, so email me so we can get started at jmarkiz@bethshalompgh.org!

Growing Through the ELC

Jennifer Slattery

Director of the ELC

slattery@bethshalompg.org

Spring is in the air in the ELC. The children are finally enjoying the playground after a very long winter. Spring is a very busy time of year in the ELC. I am excited to share with you all of the wonderful events that have taken place over the past months.

In the month of April, the ELC had a fundraiser with Usborne books. It was a great time for families and children to add some new books to their home libraries and purchase a few books for the ELC classrooms, too. Next, grandparent, Mrs. Cherie Mahram taught the children Israeli dancing for Yom Ha'atzmaut. It was such a fun day celebrating Israel's 70th birthday!

The first week in May, the PTO helped the ELC celebrate Teacher Appreciation Week. The teachers were treated to breakfast, lunch, lots of yummy snacks, and a special gift. This was a much deserved treat for our amazing teachers. Our educators are the reason the ELC is such an amazing place.

Next, we had a wonderful Grandparents/Special Friends Shabbat on May 11. Rabbi Adelson led the children and grandparents in song and dance. Smiles and laughter eamed throughout the building as grandparents visited their child's classroom for a celebration of Shabbat and a story.

Next, the Pre-K went on their final field trip to the Children's Museum. In the middle of June, we will celebrate the graduation of our Pre-K class. Many of the children who are graduating have been at Beth Shalom since infancy. They will celebrate with their parents, teachers, and friends through dance, song, and art.

In addition, June begins the start of summer camp under the lead of Camp Director/Assistant Director Hilary Huelsmann. At Camp Gan Shalom, the children will have water play, trips to the Library, a petting zoo, have outside art and much, much, more.

Wishing everyone a summer filled with fun and sunshine,

Jennifer Perer Slattery
ELC Director

OUR LEADERSHIP

Learning with J-JEP

Liron Lipinsky
Director of J-JEP
liron@jjep.org

Another year of J-JEP in the books!

J-JEP's sixth year felt different, because everything felt so natural. When I reflect upon where we came from—two separate and very distinct communities—to today...where the sense of cohesion and connection we have as a unified J-JEP community is beyond evident.

This year presented another year of growth. As J-JEP's population continues to grow, we learn that we need to expand our staff to accommodate the current needs. This upcoming Fall we will welcome additional educators on our team, but also an Assistant Director. Kate Kim started at J-JEP a few years ago as an administrative assistant. She has been instrumental behind the scenes with regards to communications, materials, and accounting. Kate's new role as Assistant Director will allow us to weave what happens at J-JEP with the preschools, the youth groups, and the benei mitzvah process at both Beth Shalom and Rodef Shalom. Prior to moving to Pittsburgh and joining the J-JEP team, Kate taught Kindergarten in Korea. Her experience teaching in an English immersion class in a different country has provided beneficial feedback and a different lens on J-JEP's Hebrew programs.

Additionally, on April 29th we "graduated" this year's 7th grade class, which to me was even more special. You see, this year's 7th graders were entering Kindergarten when I first began my tenure at Beth Shalom's Religious School. I have spent the last eight years watching them flourish and grow into philosophical, rational, challenging, opinionated, open hearted, kind, witty, genuine, ambitious and musical teens. As they were learning Jewish content and Hebrew, we were developing our program. Their critical feedback shaped the J-JEP program as it is today.

J-JEP's 5778 Graduates:

Ezra Dubowitz, Theo Rothstein, Hannah Schwartz, Adam Bisno, Abby Blank, Abigail Feinstein, Julian

Gass, Ethan Goetz, Remmie Greenwald, Patrick Hilton, Olivia Kaufman, Thomson King, Lilly Robinson, Nathan Rybski, David Weisfield, Ellie Brandeis, and Aidan Sherman

Spring and Summer are in the air and I look back on a wonderful year for Sisterhood. We began with the successful High Holiday challah sale and later in the month, we had a dairy potluck supper meeting at my home. We celebrated together for a fun Hanukkah party and warmed the winter with a participatory Sisterhood Shabbat and Kiddush luncheon, honoring two very accomplished women, Debby Gillman and Yael Silk. More recently we were proud to honor our rebbetzin, Judy Adelson, for our Annual Torah Fund Brunch. Judy is a very warm and gracious woman, who has been an integral part of Congregation Beth Shalom since her arrival here and we are fortunate to have her share her abilities and talents with us. We also raised significant funds to support the educational activities and facilities of our Conservative Movement. I am very grateful to Lynn Hecht and Rhoda Judd and their committee for all their efforts in making this event so enjoyable for everyone.

I want to thank all those who, throughout the year, volunteered their time and energy for all our activities, from Judaica Shop, Flower Fund, Sisterhood Shabbat, Torah Fund and beyond. They are truly "Women Of Valor."

As we head into the summer, please put Wednesday, June 20 on your calendar for a concluding Sisterhood "get together"!

Dear Congregants,
Men's Club Members,
and Community Friends,

I hope everyone is having an enjoyable spring season and able to dedicate a small part of your schedule to volunteer for good causes. Please take a moment to notice the various activities of the Men's Club. We offer educational events, community service events and social events as ways to unite our members. We support the synagogue via our actions and through financial contributions. We are part of a larger Men's Club organization through the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs. It is important to note that membership in Men's Club has increased significantly since last year and we are appreciative of everyone's contribution towards our success.

Our Men's Club Shabbat that took place on March 10, 2018, was well attended and enjoyed by all. Our annual Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle program had one of the most efficient operations to date and special appreciation is due to Dr. Lester Shapiro and Ira Frank for their enthusiastic collaboration and support.

Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs (FJMC) is cordially inviting all Men's Club members to consider attending the Foundation for Jewish Life Leadership Development Institute retreat scheduled this year for November 9-11, 2018. Please contact me to avail yourself of exciting information about this special event.

We are planning additional exciting programs and appreciate everyone's role in our Men's Club. As always, if anyone is interested in becoming more involved in Men's Club or has any suggestions, please contact me via email at alexanderkiderman@yahoo.com as we always welcome new members, new ideas and your participation in our programs.

B'Shalom,

Alexander Kiderman
